Las Vegas is a land of overindulgence, from hundreds of restaurants, luxurious hotels and spectacular shows to choose from. We've done the dirty work for you and narrowed down the choices to have the best romantic getaway in Sin City. What more could you want besides a great room, fine dining, drinks, massages and entertainment? Uh, you'll have to ask your partner for that.

Where To Drink

If you've never tried caviar before, Red Square is the place to do it. You'll find an impressive caviar selection, including a special reserve Beluga. Try the Domestic Trio, which is both affordable and delicious, especially when paired with vodka. For added fun, check-out the private vodka vault and don a full-length Russian fur and hat to keep you warm before stepping into the 0°F locker. Choose from over 100 varieties of the world's finest vodka and do shots on Lenin's head for a memorable experience. Happy Hour is offered daily from 4-7pm with complimentary vodka tastings, half-price appetizers and reduced drink prices.
