

EATER GUIDES

Where to Find Caviar on the Menu in Las Vegas

Monday, January 28, 2013, by Susan Stapleton

Served on mother of pearl spoons to preserve their taste, caviar is one of the most expensive dishes that can be served in Vegas. Going for $2,500 a pound, caviar commonly refers to the roe of sturgeon found in the Caspian and Black Seas. Here's a look at nine places in Vegas that serve up this delicacy.

DAILY DEALS

BELLAGIO

CAESARS PALACE

CAVIAR

EATER GUIDES

GORDON RAMSAY

GORDON RAMSAY STEAK

HAS MAP

MANDALAY BAY

MICHAEL MINA

MIX

MODEL COACH

COMMENTS

Save

Like 2

2

RED SQUARE

Red Square at Mandalay Bay has an entire caviar menu that includes Special Reserve Beluga for $189, Golden Osetra for $145 and Siberian Black Sturgeon for $100, each with a suggested vodka pairing, the specialty of the house. Try all three with the Trio Caviar Staircase Sampler for $249.

3950 LAS VEGAS BLVD.
S., LAS VEGAS, NV
89119

(702) 832-7407

WEBSITE

Save